The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ - (Corpus Christi)

Dear people of God,

The solemnity of Corpus Christi invites us to reflect on the profound mystery of the Eucharist, the true body and blood of Christ, as depicted in today's readings. Each reading unveils a different facet of this sacred mystery, enriching our understanding and deepening of faith.

Melchizedek's offerings prefigure the Eucharist, symbolizing Christ's future sacrifice. Paul recounts the institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper. Jesus words, "this is my body, and this cup of my blood," establish the Eucharist as the sacrament of His enduring presence and the new covenant with the humanity. Each celebration of the Eucharist is a proclamation of the Lord's death and a participation in his sacrificial love, drawing us into a deeper communion with him and with one another. The miraculous feeding in the Gospel not only demonstrates Jesus` compassion and divine providence, but also foreshadows the Eucharist. Just as Jesus provided physical nourishment to the crowd, he offers a spiritual nourishment to us through his body and blood.

All the readings emphasize the continuity of God's salvific plan, from the Old Testament through the New Testament, culminating in the Eucharist. Spiritually, they invite us to recognize the Eucharist as the source and summit of a Christian life, where we encounter the living Christ and are transformed by His grace. We are called to emulate Christ's generosity and compassion. The Eucharist not only nourishes us, but also compels us to feed others, both physically and spiritually. As we receive Christ's body and blood, we are empowered to be His hands and feet in the Yours in Christ, Fr. Lawrence world, extending his love and mercy to all.

On Saturday June 28th, at the 5 pm Mass.

several visitors will be coming to thank God for the gift of the sacrament of marriage as three couples renew their vows. Though they all live in Florida now, it was especially meaningful for them to celebrate here at St. Michael's Parish, where Paul and Ginger were married, where previous generations on both sides were married, and where their families were, and still are, parishioners.
